JAMES GILBERT AND SARAH FAIRN PURDY AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

JAMES GILBERT PURDY [Sosa-Stradonitz #20, Dinn genealogy], the third child of Isaac Ditmars Purdy [#40] and Sarah Ann Vroom [#41], was born at Clements, Nova Scotia, on Saturday, 5 May 1832. According to baptismal records of his children from Old St. Edward's Church, Clements, currently in the Public Archives of Nova Scotia (ref. D.G. Banks letter 12/12/1992), he was a farmer at least from 20 May 1858 to 22 April 1866. Sometime between then and 8 May 1868, he became a "mariner." Around 1870, he was stricken with yellow fever (in the same epidemic that killed his brother George), at which time his wife convinced him to give up sailing and turn to boatbuilding. He lived in Nova Scotia until about 1870 [his daughter Annie was the last child to be baptized at Old St. Edward's; Harry was baptized elsewhere, perhaps in New Brunswick - ref. D.G. Banks 12/19/1992], at which time he moved to Carleton, New Brunswick, now West St. John. [According to Geoff Hoyt, in a letter dated 2 March 1995, his grandmother Mary (James's eldest daughter) and her husband, A.A. Hoyt, both lived in New Brunswick at the time of their marriage in September 1872, but James was included in a list of residents of Bridgetown, NS, in the same time period. The possibility is that he lived in Bridgetown, where A.A. Hoyt was one of his employees, for a time in the early 1870s, but then they all moved to New Brunswick.] He ran a shipyard in Carleton, and he and his sons also built a church and a school there (ref: CCP p. 1052). The only Church of England minister they could afford for their church was a very old gentleman who came once a month; during the winters, the Purdy boys had to haul him across the frozen river on a hand sleigh. While at Carleton, the Purdys experimented with building catamarans that drew only six inches of water, could stop or turn within their own lengths, and were impossible to capsize. During the slump that hit the boatbuilding trade in the Maritimes during the 1870s and 1880s he began to seek other opportunities. He moved to the New York City area, apparently in 1885 (ref. data provided in letter from D.G. Banks 25 November 1992), where he built coal barges. There is some question as to where he and his family lived and when - what is known is as follows: their daughter Annie was married at their home in the Bronx in 1887; their son Gil was married in South Brooklyn in 1892 but his wife was buried in Nyack in 1893; their granddaughter Carrie Gardner was born at their home in Nyack in 1897; and their address as of the 1900 U.S. Census was 306 South Broadway, Yonkers. (NOTE - Mary Hardwick Favareau, his granddaughter, believes that he lived in Brooklyn between Nyack and Yonkers, while CCP p. 1052 gives the order as Brooklyn, Nyack, Yonkers. The dates given above support CCP, with the addition of the Bronx at the beginning.) While in Nyack and Yonkers, he was employed by the Charles L. Seabury Company [which later merged with the Gas Engine and Power Company to form Consolidated Shipbuilding of Morris Heights], designing and building private steam yachts. James had deformed hands which could not be opened from a clawlike position, yet he was regarded as an excellent draftsman. He died at 84 Ludlow Street, Yonkers (an apartment house where he and his wife were living with their daughter Lurana and her family), on Wednesday, 1 January 1913, and was buried at Oak Hill Cemetery, Nyack, on 4 January (ref: transcript of cemetery records). He married on Thursday, 21 September 1855 Sarah Fairn [#21] (born in Nova Scotia on Monday, 29 October 1832 - as shown in the Vroom MS genealogy and her death certificate; the 1900 U.S. Census says May 1833 - youngest child of William Fairn [#42] and Mary Berteaux [#43]; she is reputed to have been a descendant through her maternal grandmother of Kenneth MacAlpin, first King of Scotland, King Arthur the Great of England, Hugh Capet, King of the West Franks, Rollo, Duke of Normandy, and Henry the Fowler, Duke of Saxony, and a distant relative [8th cousin, 3 times removed] of President George Washington; she died at 11:30 PM on Tuesday, 5 October 1915, at 84 Ludlow Street of "acute pulmonary aedema" and was buried at Oak Hill Cemetery on 8 October; ref: death certificate and cemetery records). James and Sarah celebrated their Golden Anniversary on Wednesday, 27 September 1905, in the shipyard loft at Morris Heights - the only place big enough to hold their 60-odd living descendants (the aforementioned Vroom manuscript genealogy was a gift to them on that occasion). They had issue:

MARY ELLEN PURDY (as shown in the Vroom MS; CCP p. 1059 gives her name as Mary Jewett Purdy; her grandson Geoff Hoyt, in a letter dated 2 March 1995, enclosed a writeup in which she was referred to as "Mary Jewett nee Purdy", which gives rise to speculation that she might have been born Mary Ellen Purdy and married to a Mr. Jewett before she married A.A. Hoyt - this needs to be looked at further, since she was not yet 16 when she married Mr. Hoyt) [#20.1], born at Clements on Monday, 10 November 1856, and baptized there on Tuesday, 30 December 1856. She lived for a time (at least ca. 1913, according to Linda Gilmore letter of 12 December 1992) at Vancouver, BC. She died in Los Angeles, CA, in December 1929, aged 73, having broken her hip in falling off an exercise machine (some sort of mechanical horse, according to Geoff Hoyt). She married: (1) on Wednesday, 25 September 1872, Alfred Augustus Hoyt [#20.1a] of Bridgetown, NS (born at Bridgetown, 18 September 1849, son of George Hoyt, house-joiner, and Maria Alfrida Doucet; A.A. lived in Lancaster Parish, NB, at the time of his marriage to Mary; he was a carpenter/cabinetmaker by trade, and may have been employed by Mary's father; he died at Bridgetown, 7 December 1897; ref. Geoff Hoyt letter, 2 March 1995), and (2) in December 1919 Percy Pearson [#20.1b] (he was head of the Los Angeles Water Works). She and Alfred had issue:

MAUD MARIA HOYT [#20.11], born at Bridgetown on Wednesday, 9 July 1873; died ca. 1948 in Vancouver, BC, where she had lived for a time before her death. She married: (1) on Monday, 16 July 1894, at Anaconda, MT, James M. (or Alfred) Godard [#20.11a] (CCP gives both names, one on p. 1059, the other on p. 1060a; the Vroom MS says James M.); and (2) in 1931, Quaker Curtis [#20.11b]. She and James/Alfred had issue:

CYRIL HOYT GODARD [#20.111], born at Butte, MT, on Tuesday, 5 March 1895 (ref. Linda Gilmore letter 12 December 1992), or Sunday, 5 May 1895 (ref. Vroom MS.). He was a shipbuilder. He married in 1914 his first cousin once removed, Grace Fairn Purdy [#20.23] (born at St. John, NB, on Sunday, 31 July 1892, daughter of Reginald F. Purdy [#20.2] and Mary Elizabeth Davis [#20.2a]; she was a Registered Nurse; she died in Vancouver, BC, in May 1982). They had issue (according to Linda Gilmore, as of 1974 they had 6 children, 24 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren):

MAUD ELIZABETH ("Betty") GODARD [#20.1111], born in New York on Thursday, 15 April 1915, died at Sechelt, BC, on Saturday, 6 August 1977. She married William Edward Shandley [#20.1111a] in Vancouver, and they had issue:

ALICE FAIRN SHANDLEY [#20.11111], born at Vancouver on Monday, 10 June 1935; she married Trygve Lyle Ellingsen [#20.11111a] and they had issue:

GEORGE DITMARS PURDY [#20.3], who was born at Clements on Monday, 12 March 1860, and baptized on Sunday, 6 May 1860; he emigrated to the U.S. in 1876. By that time, he had already been at sea for a year. By the time he was 19, he was already commanding his own vessels. In 1892, he gave up merchant sailing to become a yacht master, first of Strae, a 55' steam yacht built in 1891 [Hull #14] by the Charles L. Seabury yard of Nyack, NY, for Thomas A. McIntyre of the New York Stock Exchange. While in Mr. McIntyre's employ, he also commanded the stern-wheel steamer George D. Purdy [Hull #45], an 85' stern-wheel steam-powered houseboat built by Seabury for Mr. McIntyre, on her maiden voyage in April 1894 to the New River in North Carolina, where she was to serve as a railway and excursion steamer. After Mr. McIntyre's death, George commanded for 17 years the auxiliary schooner yacht Intrepid, owned by Capt. Lloyd Phoenix of New York. He carried the highest maritime licenses issued by the British and American governments and was considered one of the foremost yachting captains of the Atlantic Coast. When he became ill in the fall of 1924, he was in the services of Senator Metcalf of Rhode Island. As of the 1900 Census he lived on Popham Avenue, the Bronx, in the same house as his brother Harry. He died at his home on Middle Avenue, Tiverton, RI, on Saturday, 18 July 1925 (ref. obituary, New York Times, 20 July 1925, and another obituary in CCP) [NOTE - Linda Gilmore states that he died on 2 June 1925]. He married on Friday, 13 May 1892 Margaret Campbell Gardner [#20.3a] of Liverpool, NS (born November 1871; emigrated 1892; she was a sister of Blanchard Gardner who had earlier married George's sister Annie Wood Purdy [#20.6]). EDYTHE GORDON PURDY [#20.37], born in 1907. She had polio, but died of kidney disease ca. 1923 (ref. L. Gilmore 12/12/1992)

JAMES GILBERT ("Gil") PURDY [#20.4], who was born in Canada on Friday, 5 December 1862 (year given in 1900 Census as 1832, but age then and at time of death implies 1862). According to Linda Gilmore, he was baptized at Clements on 3 January 1863 [baptismal records from Old St. Edward's Church, as copied by Marcie Banks, give the date as 3 January 1862; ref. D.G. Banks letter 12/19/1992]. He was a draftsman at Consolidated; he later joined with his brother Ned in the Purdy Boat Company, and after Ned's death became President of the Company (he is so noted on Company records of 1936-37). According to his granddaughter, Claire Ellen Purdy (statement of 6 April 1993, he may have worked for the Bath Iron Works, Bath, ME, between the time he left Consolidated and the time he joined Ned. He retired in 1941. According to the records of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Port Washington, NY, and an obituary in the Port Washington News, Gil died at Nassau Hospital, Mineola, NY, on Saturday, 30 March 1946, aged 83; the proximate cause of death was listed as gangrene of the left foot; he was buried at Fresh Pond Cemetery (possibly a misprint for Fresh Pond Crematorium, Middle Village, Queens County); his residence at time of death was given as Williston Park, NY. He married: (I) at South Brooklyn, NY, on Sunday, 28 February 1892 Delia S. Tompkins [#20.4a] (daughter of James H. Tompkins and Maria [maiden surname unknown]; she was presumably born in Nyack ca. 1870; she died of tuberculosis on Monday, 20 February 1893 [ref: death certificate], and was buried on 23 February 1893 [ref: Grace Church records] in the Purdy family plot at Oak Hill Cemetery, Nyack) and (II) at Morris Heights, NY, on Wednesday, 1 February 1899 Sarah Ellen ("Nell") Perry [#20.4b] (the 1900 U.S. Census gave her name as "Nellie"; she was the widow of Ira Vroom, possibly a relative of the Purdys; according to the Census, she was born in Canada, presumably at Barton, Digby, NS, in April 1870, and returned there after Gil's death; according to Linda Gilmore, she was still living in 1954). According to the 1900 Census, Gil and Nell both came to the U.S. in 1886; their address is given therein as 16 Pier Street, Yonkers. Maybelle Elizabeth [Purdy] Ames, in a letter to Alan Dinn dated 5 October 1978, offered the following reminiscence of Gil and Nell Purdy: James Gilbert was Aunt Nell's second husband. She had been married to a sea captain and had sailed to the Orient with him. He died en route and she returned a widow. There were no children by [the] first marriage. It might have been their honeymoon. Aunt Nell only told me (sc. - Betty Ames) one tale about living aboard and that was about the troublesome rats. She never mentioned the unhappy circumstances of her journey. Aunt Nell and Uncle Gil were a very gentle couple and delightful to visit.

Banks 12/19/1992), died at United Hospital, Port Chester, NY, Tuesday, 24 December 1929 (ref. Linda Gilmore 12/12/1992). She played the organ and violin and had a good singing voice. She married at the Purdy home in the Bronx on Tuesday, 9 August 1887 (ref. CCP p. 1062) Blanchard ("Blanch") Gardner [#20.6a] of Liverpool, NS (born in his paternal grandfather's house at Brooklyn, NS, Tuesday, 25 September 1860, son of Captain James Gardner and Elizabeth R. Annis; he died at Gardner's Island, Greenwich, CT, in February 1940). At the time of his marriage to Nan, Blanch had been master of the two-masted square rigger brigantine Arthur, which was lost in a hurricane off the Tortugas (in the Gulf of Mexico). The crew were rescued and taken to New York, where Blanch stayed with the Purdy family, whose sons he had known. A week later, he and Nan were wed by the Rev. D. Cherboulrier. Blanch and Nan went to sea together until 1895, when they settled in Nyack. In 1898, they moved to Popham Avenue, The Bronx, where they lived as of the 1900 Census. Blanch worked for the Charles L. Seabury shipyard in Nyack and Morris Heights, and later became master of Frank J. Gould's steam yacht Helenita (ref. D.G. Banks). On Sunday, 4 March 1906, Blanch and Nan moved to Ritch (or Gardner's) Island, off Byram, CT, where Blanch was the captain of the Island Beach ferry (ref: CCP p. 1071 and address book of Clara Lurana [Purdy] Dinn; nautical charts of the area in the 1970s show no island of that name; however, Linda Gilmore says that it was later called Neisen's Island [spelling uncertain] after an actress, Gertrude Neisen, who bought the island from the Gardners); they had issue:

SARAH ELIZABETH ("Sadie") GARDNER [#20.61], born in New York City, Friday, 7 September 1888, died at Gloucester, MA, 28 July 1957. She graduated from the Stamford (CT) Hospital Nursing School; she was called into active service as a nurse for World War I on 9 August 1918 at Greene, NC, serving until January 1919. EDWARD DOWLING ("E.D."; "Ned") PURDY [#20.8; Sosa-Stradonitz #10 in the Dinn genealogy] was born at St. John, NB, on Sunday, 28 February 1875 (given in the 1900 U.S. Census as 1874) and baptized at Grand Bay on Thursday, 29 April 1875; he came to New York (in 1890, according to the Census) and later joined his father and brothers in the employ of the Charles L. Seabury Company. His address is given in the 1900 Census as 173 Riverdale Avenue, Yonkers; he later lived at 1965 Cedar Avenue, Morris Heights (address given in a New Testament belonging to his son Robert). In 1915, he was hired (along with his brother James Gilbert) by Carl Graham Fisher, President of Prest-O-Lite, co-founder of the Indianapolis Speedway, and real estate developer, and set up in business as the Purdy Boat Company. Mr. Fisher moved the company to Indianapolis, IN (where they built two speedboats on the infield of the Speedway), Miami Beach, FL (where the Purdys were one of two families to live there year-round; the street that their shop was on is still called Purdy Avenue), and Trenton, MI, (where they had settled by September 1919; ref: date on a blueprint generated there; they lived in Trenton at 134 4th Street, ref: Rana's 1924 driver's license), before they finally settled at Port Washington, NY, in the spring of 1925 [according to a notice in the Port Washington News in March 1925, the Purdy Boat Company was to arrive in a few weeks]. E.D. died at Port Washington on Monday, 13 March 1933. During E.D.'s lifetime, the Purdy Boat Company was regarded among the best designers and builders of custom yachts and racing boats in the land; several of their boats won class (Gold Cup, Star) championships, and a few are still in use ca. 1994. E.D. was married on Friday, 23 November 1894 at Nyack, NY (by the Rev. F. Greaves, Assistant Rector, Grace Episcopal Church; ref: marriage certificate) to Clara Elizabeth Bingham [#11] (born Saturday, 11 October 1873 at Pinchbeck, Spalding, Lincolnshire, England; she came to the U.S. in 1885; she was a daughter of William Bingham [#22] and his second wife, Annie Pett [#23] [William died in England prior to 1883 and Annie apparently died in St. John's Hospital, Yonkers, on Sunday, 3 December 1899 and was buried on 6 December at Oak Hill Cemetery, Nyack; ref: death certificate]; Clara died in Port Washington on Sunday, 3 September 1944; ref: obituary in Port Washington News); they had issue:

EDWARD BINGHAM ("Ned") PURDY [#10.1 (20.81)], born at Nyack, Friday, 31 May 1895, baptized at Grace Episcopal Church there 6 October 1895 (ref: Parish records), date of death unknown. He ran away from home and enlisted in the Canadian Army during World War I; he was gassed while serving in France. He worked in the boatbuilding trade for many years (one tradition has it that he was involved with rumrunners). He married: (I) in 1924 (ref. L. Gilmore) Hilda Burkhardt [#10.1a] (divorced 1944), and (II) in 1946 Olive Frank [#10.1b] (date of death unknown). He and Hilda had issue (no issue from second marriage):

He served in the U.S. Navy during World War I, and after the War moved to Miami Beach to join his father's boat yard. He later left the Purdy yard and worked for several years as a yacht captain for Colonel Samuel L. Slover and his wife, Fay, of Norfolk, VA [Slover was in banking and real estate and owned several newspapers, including the Richmond (VA) Times, the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch, and the Virginia Pilot], on two Purdy-built boats, SHADOW J (Hull #64 - bought from Carl Fisher) and SHADOW FAY (Hull #186 - built specifically for the Slovers). As of November 1937, George's address in Norfolk was 916 Westover Avenue. After Mrs. Slover tired of her "play toy" about 1938 [ref: letter from Jerry Purdy, 31 May 1994; according to Sparkman & Stephens files from the Antique Boat Museum, Clayton, NY, the boat was offered for sale in November 1937], George returned to Miami, built a home there, and went to work in yacht yards. During World War II, he worked at the Charleston Navy Yard, SC. In the early 1960s, he converted an air-sea rescue hull for the title role in the movie PT-109. He retired in 1966. He married at Jacksonville, FL, on 5 July 1918, Mildred Roger Kydd [#10.2a], whom he had known from New York City (reputedly a third cousin of Peter Shand Kydd, stepfather of Diana, Princess of Wales; Mildred died in Jacksonville, FL, in 1980). They had issue:

GEORGE WILLIAM ("Jerry") PURDY, Jr. [#10.21 (20.821)], born at Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, FL, 23 May 1919. He attended a variety of schools in Florida and Virginia as his parents moved, graduating from Maury High School, Norfolk, VA, in 1936. He then attended night classes offered by the College of William and Mary in Norfolk for a year, followed by three years on an athletic scholarship at the University of Miami (Florida) as a "walk on" football player (i.e., one who had no high school experience). He graduated from Miami with a B.S. degree in Business Administration in 1941, and has since taken several post-graduate courses. He served on active duty in the U.S. Navy from December 1941 to December 1945 (European Theater) and again from September 1950 to July 1954, and retired from the Navy with 38½ years of service. He has been employed as a Scout Executive in Washington, DC (1941), and New York City (1946 to Spring 1947), and as an insurance agent since that time, starting in New York City in 1947 and then moving on to Miami, Tampa, FL, Jacksonville, and Washington, DC, finally settling in Atlanta, GA, in 1963. As of May 1994, he was a broker in life, accident, health, and group insurance. He died in Colorado while on a ski trip on 15 December 1994. He married: (I) in Washington, DC, _____ [#10.21a]; (II) in New York City, _____ [#10.21b]; and (III) in Washington, DC, on 19 August 1963, Ruth Bradford Chapman [#10.21c] (she was born at Everton, AR, on 16 April 1925, daughter of George Sampson Bradford and Hattie D. Mallett, and had one child, Roger Bradford Chapman, from a previous marriage). George and Ruth's last known address (May 1994) was 5015 Lake Graystone Rd, Lithia Springs, GA (they have 120 acres of land there). He had issue (not sure of order of birth):

GEORGE WILLIAM PURDY, III [#10.221 (20.8221)], born 28 October 1954. He had issue:

JERRY MARLIN PURDY [#10.2211 (20.82211)], born at Springfield, MO, 21 January 1994

VICTORIA IRENE PURDY [#10.222 (20.8222)], born 1 January 1967

CAROL J. PURDY [#10.223 (20.8223)], born 13 March 1959. She graduated, presumably from the University of Colorado (Boulder), in August 1992.

LURANA PURDY [#10.22 (20.822)], born 28 August (year unknown); former chief guidance counselor for Dade County (FL) Public Schools, later a high school principal in Jacksonville. She married Hugh I. Creveling [#10.22a]. They live at 4031 Fincannon Road, W., Jacksonville, and had issue:

WILLIAM CREVELING [#10.221 (20.8221)], born ca. 1960. He has a degree in business, and worked for several years as a partner in a Honda/Acura service and repair business in Atlanta, GA. As of February 1994, he has returned to Jacksonville and is attempting to start his own business.

ROBERT COCHRANE PURDY [#10.4 (20.84)], born Wednesday, 14 August 1901, died at Bradenton, FL, Sunday, 18 May 1975. He worked for most of his life at the family boat yard, where he was regarded as an outstanding engine mechanic, and also piloted some of the Purdy boats in races. During World War II, he was given a direct commission as a Captain (later promoted to Major) in the U.S. Army Air Forces and was sent to Lake Pontchartrain, LA, to train crews operating Purdy-built aircraft rescue boats. He married at Trenton, MI, on Saturday, 16 June 1923 Maybelle Marguerite deRusha [#10.4a] (born Friday, 28 June 1901, died at Bradenton, Tuesday, 30 December 1975; ref: memorial card) and they had issue:

MAYBELLE ELIZABETH ("Betty") PURDY [#10.41 (20.841)], born Tuesday, 16 June 1925. She worked for a time in the 1940s for Eastern Airlines. She married in Port Washington in 1947 William Haviland Ames [#10.41a] of that town (he was born at Sherborn, MA, on Sunday, 20 November 1921, and died in Bradenton on Wednesday, 8 July 1992; he was a graduate of the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, NY, and was employed at various times by United Fruit and by Combustion Engineering [now a part of ASEA Brown Boveri], retiring in 1980). They lived for a time in Port Washington, then moved to West Simsbury, CT, where they lived for several years; they finally moved (after Bill's retirement) to Bradenton. They had issue:

CHARLOTTE ESTELLE AMES [#10.411 (20.8411)], born 1950. She studied ballet for several years, and graduated from Adelphi University, Garden City, NY, in the early 1970s. She married C. Dennis Posey [#10.411a] on Saturday, 8 July 1978, at Christ Episcopal Church, Avon, CT. They currently live in Haddam, CT. They have no issue.

ARTHUR DOWLING PURDY [#10.5 (20.85)], born Sunday, 31 August 1902, died ca. 1960. He was also employed at the Purdy Boat Company. He married Theresa ("Dolly") Leifheit [#10.5a] (daughter of Henry and Gizella [maiden surname unknown] Leifheit of Port Washington; Henry died ca. 1955, Gizella died on 29 March 1960, aged 82 [ref: her obituary, Port Washington News, 31 March 1960], and Dolly died in 1978) and they had issue:

ARTHUR PURDY [#10.51 (20.851)], born ca. 1941. He attended Port Washington public schools. He married Marie Tyson [#10.51a] of Port Washington.

PAUL STANLEY PURDY [#10.6 (20.86)], born Friday, 16 September 1904, died of heart disease 1924. According to his diary (cited elsewhere as "Purdy diary") he played right end on the 1921 Trenton (MI) High School football team.

MILTON HERBERT PURDY [#10.7 (20.87)], born Friday, 17 November 1905, died ca. 1961. He attended Trenton High School (according to the Purdy diary, he was left end on the 1921 football team and also team captain) and Michigan State University. After his father's death, he became Vice President of the Purdy Boat Company (he is so listed on Company records of 1936-37); after his uncle James Gilbert Purdy retired in 1941, he became President of the Company and held that office until his death. He also served on the Port Washington Board of Education ca. 1953 (his name is on a list of Board members on a plaque in the Paul D. Schreiber High School, which was opened in that year). He married Mary Brown [#10.7a] and they had issue:

Bradford-O'Keefe Funeral Records Books 1 through 32

Compiled by Julie Broussard Suarez

I have compiled an index of the first thirty-two books of the Bradford-O'Keefe Funeral Home burial records to help other researchers, like me, in their endeavors. Bradford-O'Keefe Funeral Home served families along the coastal area in Mississippi. The final product is an index containing over 10,000 entries; it begins in 1904 and continues into 1948. Included in this index are: 1) first and last name of deceased; 2) date of birth and date of death; fathers and mothers name; and book number and page where information can be found. All information is included that was available in the record. You will find several different spellings of the same name, I left them like that so you could see the possible ways to hunt your ancestor. Some of the records may be misspelled because I could not read the writing on the record or if the record itself was misspelled.

These books of records are available at the Biloxi Library in the Geneological Section. I would like to thank them for the use of the records. They are also available at the funeral home.

Note: While in the process of completing this publication, a volume of Bradford records were discovered that have no book or page numbers. I am inputting them into the computer and will have them available soon. There are records in this volume ranging from 1945 through 1952.

SUMMER CAMP

Director of Moss Point YMCA James Denson said Miss Thompson has excelled as a counselor in the two years she has worked for him and that she tries to instill a sense of teamwork in her group. "She's an excellent counselor. She works well with them (the children.) She's very patient with them. She has all of the necessary skills to be a camp counselor."

The mission of YMCA Summer Camp is to place an emphasis on Christian morals and values so children can see that "it is a better way of life." Ocean Springs YMCA Program Director Greg Gipson said. "We have a couple of under privileged kids mixed up with the kids that are paying customers and we want to make sure that they all get along."

All counselors must be at least 18 and undergo thorough training such as a CPR course, a first aid course and a course on dealing with children.

"We try to have safe fun and teach the kids not to call others names and to respect other people's feelings," Miss Thompson said with a smile as she got up to tend to a young boy who asked her to wipe his face.

Though teaching values is a challenge for her, she said it is also an important part of being a camp counselor. "It might be hard just for the summertime because you have to get some of that at home, but I think the values that we teach already are enforced at home. So we just make sure that they are carried out."

Some of the values she enforces are no name-calling and getting along with each other.

"If somebody has a dispute, I make them about it. If they decide they still don't want to get along, I make them sit with each other minute and see if they still can't work. They have to be with each other through summer and I think they should try to figure out how to get along with each other."

Though she said she is still learning to work with children, one lesson Miss Thompson has learned is that children require more instruction and discipline — they answer.

"You cannot just say 'no,' you have to say 'why,'" she said. "For example, we have with bleachers. They will run up and down the bleachers and you will say, 'Don't run down the bleachers.' They want to say, 'why can't I?' I say, 'You might fall on yourself. Something may happen.'"

The YMCA is funded by the United Way. The camp is open to children ages 5 to 12 every summer.

This year the camp began on May 31 and runs through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The four coastal camps are currently anyone interested in signing their child be put on a waiting list.

Though Miss Thompson does not plan to become a registered nurse and plans to return as a YMCA Summer counselor next year.

"I like to make kids happy," she said.

Point police still searching for bank robber

Moss Point police were still searching Sunday for the robber who got away with an undisclosed amount of cash from an Escatawpa bank.

Police said a lone robber, wearing a ski mask and carrying a gun, entered the Magnolia Federal Bank about 3:30 p.m. Friday. Police said a robber with a similar description robbed the Kreole branch of Hancock Bank on May 18.

Moss Point Police Chief Charles Barber said it is too soon to tell if the robberies are related.

"All we know is that the bank was robbed of an undetermined amount of money by a white male, with a ski mask. At this time we are not sure if it is the same person who robbed the other one," Barber said.

Police are asking anyone with information to call the police department, FBI or Crime-stoppers at 1-800-433-TIPS.

Friday's robbery was the 10th robbery on the coast this year. In 1992 four banks were robbed.

Friday's robbery was the second in Moss Point in three weeks and the second in about 30 years.

Autopsy ordered for baby boy

OCEAN SPRINGS — A six-and-a-half week old baby was dead on arrival at Ocean Springs hospital Wednesday morning.

Jackson County Coroner Benny Bryant said the infant, Christopher R. Ess, died of natural causes. He said there will be an autopsy later.

The infant is the son of Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Thomas Ess of 36 Holcomb Blvd.

According to Ocean Springs police, they received a telephone call at 6:48 a.m. from the mother, Karen Ess. The infant had apparently died during the night in its crib. Sgt. Carolyn Wilkerson said, Amserv arrived shortly after the police did.

Also investigating the death was patrolman Louie Jones.

Three injured in accident

Three crew members of the U.S. Hayler were taken to Singing River Hospital after a car accident at this morning.

Pascagoula police officer I. Tucker stated in his report that Michael M. Lopez, with the U.S. Hayler, was eastbound on Inverness Avenue and attempting to turn onto Chicot Street when Lopez saw some headlights coming towards him. He swerved to avoid a collision and struck a telephone pole on the side of Chicot Street.

The passengers with Lopez, James East, 20, Jerry Pullman, 18, and Shepard, 19, were treated and released at Singing River Hospital.

CHAPTER 13 DE

CHAPT

of Darryl C. Thomas,

762-5420 or 762-5429

Born in New York City, Mr. Purdy came, with the rest of his family, to the South when he was a young man. After about three years, he went to Michigan but his four brothers remained in Pascagoula. Two years ago Mr. Purdy, who had been connected as marine draftsman with several shipyards during the first World War, returned to Pascagoula to work as a craftsman at the Ingalls yard, but a few months later his health became so bad that he was forced to give up work.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Marion Coan Purdy; one daughter, Miss Virginia Ann Purdy; one son, Jack Purdy, all of Pascagoula; two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Gautier, Pascagoula, and Mrs. Paul Schrech, Pensacola, Fla.; and four brothers, J. W., G. R. and C. A. Purdy of Pascagoula; and F. W. Purdy of the U. S. Navy in the Southwest Pacific.

Purdy Family

Mr. H. H. Purdy, aged 62 years, died Monday morning early at the home of his son in law, Elmer Gautier, on Roosevelt street. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from late home of deceased Rev. John Bevan, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, officiating with interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Purdy was born in St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada, and came to Pascagoula during war times and worked for the government as a ship builder. Since shipbuilding ceased here he has lived part of the time in Mobile. He is survived by five sons and two daughters, as follows: Harry Purdy of Detroit, Joe Purdy, Frank Purdy and Mrs. Paul Schreck of Mobile; Gerald Purdy, Charlie Purdy and Mrs. Elmer Gautier of Pascagoula, and other relatives.

The Chronicle-Star extends its sympathies to the bereaved family.
